

Peace Corps Peru is looking for technical trainers for the area of Small Business Development to work in the Pre-service Training program for new Volunteers. The training is from May 13 - August 31, 2007, which includes the preparation before the arrival of the new Volunteers. The training is based outside of Lima, approximately 40 minutes by car.

This is a full time position (44 hours per week) in this time frame.

Resumes and cover letters should be in by February 27, 2007.

Basic Functions

Working with the Training Manager and the Associate Director responsible for the Small Business Development Project, the Technical Trainers plan and deliver sessions and activities dealing with topics such as basic book keeping, marketing, organizational development; develop training materials and contacts; coordinate integration of technical training with language facilitators and other training staff. The Technical Trainers guide, monitor and evaluate the Trainees from the Small Business Development sector in acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary for successful service.

Qualifications

- Degree in business or related discipline
- Three years of business-related experience
- Experience working in rural Peru or Latin America
- Spanish and English proficiency
- Experience working with small-scale businesses and producers
- Experience with adult non-formal education /training

Send resume, cover letter and contact information to P.O. Box 18-0094, Lima.